Keep Mackey Barron's Legacy Alive With an ICIF Donation

The International Communications Industries Foundation (ICIF) is accepting donations to memorialize and continue Mackey Barron's legacy in the audiovisual industry. Mackey Barron was the founder of HB Communications and has been associated with InfoComm International® and its predecessor organizations since 1947.

He served on the InfoComm Board and was a true pioneer in the AV industry. With your support, ICIF will carry on his beliefs of strengthening the AV industry through education and ensuring future growth of our industry. Your donations will directly impact the success of educational opportunities through scholarships, curriculum development, community engagement and promotion of careers in the AV field.

Please join others in the AV community. Your support of this fund will greatly benefit the industry and ensure Mackey Barron's legacy.
